Introduction

Welcome

Welcome to Cloverport Independent Schools.

The purpose of the handbook is to acquaint you with general Board of Education policies that govern and affect your employment and to outline the benefits available to you as an employee of the District.

Because this handbook is a general source of information, it is not intended to be, and should not be interpreted as, a contract. It is not an all-encompassing document and may not cover every possible situation or unusual circumstance. If a conflict exists between information in this handbook and Board policy or administrative procedures, the policies and procedures govern. It is the employee’s responsibility to refer to the actual policies and/or administrative procedures for further information. Complete copies of those documents are available at the Central Office, in the Principal’s office, or online via the District’s web site or through this Internet address: http://policy.ksba.org/C15/. Any employee is free to review official policies and procedures and is expected to be familiar with those related to his/her job responsibilities. Employees and students who fail to comply with Board policies may be subject to disciplinary action. 01.5

In this handbook, bolded policy codes indicate related Board of Education policies. If an employee has questions, s/he should contact his/her immediate supervisor or the school Superintendent in the Central Office.

District Vision

All students’ life ready and 21st century prepared.

District Mission

To engage all learners and educators by building communities of learning, utilizing effective 21st century strategies with personalized learning.

Future Policy Changes

Although every effort will be made to update the handbook on a timely basis, the Cloverport Independent Board of Education reserves the right, and has the sole discretion, to change any policies, procedures, benefits, and terms of employment without notice, consultation, or publication, except as may be required by contractual agreements and law. The District reserves the right, and has the sole discretion, to modify or change any portion of this handbook at any time.

To address a qualifying exigency (need) defined by federal regulation arising out of the covered active duty or call to active duty involving deployment to a foreign country of the employee’s spouse, son, daughter, or parent who serves in a reserve component or as an active or retired member of the Regular Armed Forces or Reserve in support of a contingency operation; and
5. To care for a covered service member (spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin) who has incurred or aggravated a serious injury or illness in the line of duty while on active duty in the Armed Forces that has rendered or may render the family member medically unfit to perform his/her duties or to care for a covered veteran with a serious injury or illness as defined by federal regulations.

When family and medical military caregiver leave is taken based on a serious illness or injury of a covered service member, an eligible employee may take up to twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave during a single twelve-month period.

Paid leave used under this policy will be subtracted from the twelve (12) workweeks to which the employee is entitled. Employees should contact their immediate supervisor as soon as they know they will need to use Family and Medical Leave. 03.12322/03.22322

Following is a summary of the major provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provided by the United States Department of Labor.
FML Basic Leave Entitlement

FMLA requires covered employers to provide up to 12 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave to eligible employees for the following reasons:

• For incapacity due to pregnancy, prenatal medical care or child birth;
• To care for the employee’s child after birth, or placement for adoption or foster care;
• To care for the employee’s spouse, son, daughter or parent, who has a serious health condition; or
• For a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the employee’s job.

Military Family Leave Entitlements - Eligible employees whose spouse, son, daughter or parent is on covered active duty or call to covered active duty status may use their 12-week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

FMLA also includes a special leave entitlement that permits eligible employees to take up to 26 weeks of leave to care for a covered servicemember during a single 12-month period. A covered servicemember is: (1) a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness; or (2) a veteran who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness.

*The FMLA definitions of “serious injury or illness” for current servicemembers and veterans are distinct from the FMLA definition of “serious health condition”.

Benefits and Protections - During FMLA leave, the employer must maintain the employee’s health coverage under any “group health plan” on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work. Upon return from FMLA leave, most employees must be restored to their original or equivalent positions with equivalent pay, benefits, and other employment terms.

Use of FMLA leave cannot result in the loss of any employment benefit that accrued prior to the start of an employee’s leave.

Eligibility Requirements - Employees are eligible if they have worked for a covered employer for at least 12 months, have 1,250 hours of service in the previous 12 months, and if at least 50 employees are employed by the employer within 75 miles.

*Special hours of service eligibility requirements apply to airline flight crew employees.

Definition of Serious Health Condition - A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee’s job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.

Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by a period of incapacity of more than 3 consecutive calendar days combined with at least two visits to a health care provider or one visit and a regimen of continuing treatment, or incapacity due to pregnancy, or incapacity due to a chronic condition. Other conditions may meet the definition of continuing treatment.

Use of Leave - An employee does not need to use this leave entitlement in one block. Leave can be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary. Employees must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the employer’s operations. Leave due to qualifying exigencies may also be taken on an intermittent basis.

Substitution of Paid Leave for Unpaid Leave - Employees may choose or employers may require use of accrued paid leave while taking FMLA leave. In order to use paid leave for FMLA leave, employees must comply with the employer’s normal paid leave policies.

Employee Responsibilities - Employees must provide 30 days advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave when the need is foreseeable. When 30 days notice is not possible, the employee must provide notice as soon as practicable and generally must comply with an employer’s normal call-in procedures.

Employees must provide sufficient information for the employer to determine if the leave may qualify for FMLA protection and the anticipated timing and duration of the leave. Sufficient information may include that the employee is unable to perform job functions, the family member is unable to perform daily activities, the need for hospitalization or continuing treatment by a health care provider, or circumstances supporting the need for military family leave.

Employees also must inform the employer if the requested leave is for a reason for which FMLA leave was previously taken or certified. Employees also may be required to provide a certification and periodic recertification supporting the need for leave.

Employer Responsibilities - Covered employers must inform employees requesting leave whether they are eligible under FMLA. If they are, the notice must specify any additional information required as well as the employees’ rights and responsibilities. If they are not eligible, the employer must provide a reason for the ineligibility.

Covered employers must inform employees if leave will be designated as FMLA-protected and the amount of leave counted against the employee’s leave entitlement. If the employer determines that the leave is not FMLA-protected, the employer must notify the employee.

Unlawful Acts by Employers - FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to: interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided or to discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.

Enforcement - An employer may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer. FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights.
Maternity Leave

Employees may use up to thirty (30) days of sick leave immediately following the birth or adoption of a child.

The parent of a newborn or an employee who adopts a child may also request an unpaid leave of absence not to exceed the remainder of the school year in which the birth or placement occurred. Thereafter, leave may be extended in increments of no more than one (1) year.

Employees eligible for family and medical leave are entitled to up to twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid leave to care for the employee's child after birth or placement of a child with the employee for adoption or foster care. Purchasing Information

If you wish to make purchases using school or District funds, a purchase requisition must be completed and approved prior to making an expenditure. Blank requisitions are available on the District website. Completed requisitions are to be turned in to the Principal’s box and will be returned to the employee once they have been approved and coded. Once the employee receives the approved requisitions, either Dee Powers (school secretary), or Linda Thompson (district) will place the order. Requisitions for District funds should be signed by the Principal and coded prior to being emailed or sent directly to the Central Office. Once the requisition has been approved for purchasing, Linda Thompson or Dee Powers will place the order. The school is not responsible for payment for materials or services that were not requisitioned and approved in advance. Requisitions should be completed at least three (3) working days prior to orders being placed or funds being spent.

Classroom Management Plans

Every classroom should have an effective behavior management plan in use. This plan should be user friendly and visible upon entry to your classroom. Teachers are free to create/choose their own behavior management plan in conjunction with the Principal and must be approved by the Principal for building consistency. Careful and consistent use of your plan will help avoid many disciplinary office referrals. Consequences for misbehavior should be posted as well. Copies of your plan should be sent home to parents as well. After the classroom teacher has followed the classroom management plan, he/she may elect to send the child to the office for disciplinary action. If you need assistance in developing a classroom management plan, see Harry Wong’s The First Days of School or Randy Sprick’s CHAMPs for assistance.

Home-School Communication

A newsletter will typically be sent home on the first Monday of the month. If you have information, announcements or student work samples for the monthly newsletter, please send that to the Principal, preferably through e-mail. One Call Now will also be used to inform parents about school events. If you would like to place a One Call to a student group, please contact the Principal.

Scheduling Events

If you need to schedule events involving school facilities or students, please pre-plan through the Principal's office to make sure the facilities are available on your selected date and time. Events will be placed on the master calendar as they are received. All events should be scheduled, including athletic practices.
Restroom/Hall Passes

Students in the hallway during instructional time should have their agenda book properly filed out with destination, time, and teacher signature. Every effort should be made to keep students in class during instructional time.

Grading

All students should receive a daily participation grade as well as at least 3 other grades per week in each subject. Grades should be entered into Infinite Campus no later than one week after an assignment is due. Please have a plan in place for students to make up missed work for excused absences.

Suggestions for Lesson Plans

Engaging plans for each subject/class period should include the standard being taught (common core or program of studies code), instructional activities and assessment. More thorough planning information may also be included.

Instruction should be planned in advance so materials can be prepared and ready for use. Students should not have to wait for the teacher to collect or prepare materials. Instruction should be planned to utilize all available time. Down time is the enemy of student achievement. Instruction should be rigorous, focused and actively involve students in the learning process.

Substitute Folders

Teachers will receive a blank substitute folder at the beginning of the year to complete and turn in by the stated deadline. Sample letters and forms will be contained in the blank substitute folder and you may use these or create your own materials.

All folders should include:

- Welcome Letter with General Classroom Information;
- Classroom Management Plan;
- Seating Chart(s);
- Student Services and Special Needs (remember confidentiality);
- Transportation List; and
- Emergency Lesson Plan/Materials.

Media Center

The media center is open to the public from 12:30-4:30 pm daily. Please be mindful of the public during this time.

If you need to schedule time for your class to come use the media center as a large group, please schedule through Mrs. Cliburn.
Many teacher professional resources are available for check-out from the Media Center. If you have need of materials related to a specific topic, please contact Mrs. Cliburn.

The school media center will open for students at 8:00 each morning and close for students at 2:30 each day.

Volunteer and Visitor Sign-In

All visitors and volunteers will sign-in at the front office upon entry to the building. They will also be given a badge to wear during their time in the building. If you see volunteers or visitors in the building without a badge, please direct them to the front office to sign in. Sign-in exceptions will be made on the first and last day of school as well as assemblies/events where the community is invited.

Volunteer Training

All building volunteers must participate in a yearly volunteer training before working in the building. Information about the date and time of the first volunteer training will be sent home in the first school newsletter. Please encourage parents to attend volunteer training.

Building Appearance

Every effort will be made to keep the building neat and tidy—the appearance of the building is the first impression we make on students, parents and community members. The following items are the responsibility of the classroom teachers:

- Ensuring that trash is placed in the trash can each day, not on the floors.
- Dusting classroom furniture.
- Keeping teacher and student desks neat and tidy.

Displays: Displays should be neat and attractive; and, they should highlight student work or pertinent information for students. Work displayed in halls should be high-quality. Teachers are responsible for removing both student work and mounting materials completely from walls. High temperature hot glue should never be used to create displays as it removes paint from the walls. Any signs or posters should be approved through the front office before being displayed.

Progress Monitoring

Student progress will be monitored throughout the year. Teachers are expected to use formative assessments for routine classroom assessment. A system of interventions will be developed and provided for students who are not demonstrating proficiency on classroom assessments.
Each teacher will submit one sample of a formative assessment each week. The submission should include one dated copy of the assessment, one copy of the scoring guide, one cover sheet and three samples of student work (one low, one mid, one high). On-going progress monitoring will begin on Monday of the second full week with the first submission due on Friday of that week.

Performance Goals: The goal for on-going progress monitoring is for all students to develop a habit of being successful on rigorous assessments. To accomplish this goal, teachers will need to scaffold support to increase student independence. Towards this goal, teachers are encouraged to develop a system for recognizing and rewarding student success. Listed below are some recommended guidelines:

- Initially (during the first quarter), students should be provided with multiple opportunities and coaching to help them achieve success. The teacher’s goal should be to have every student demonstrate proficiency or better.

- As the year progresses (during the second quarter), students should still be provided with additional opportunities and coaching to achieve success, however, the goal should be for students to be successful with less support/coaching from school staff.

- As testing approaches (beginning of third quarter), students should be prepared to score at or above proficiency on their initial attempt. By providing rigorous instruction and cultivating critical thinking skills, students should be ready now to produce high-quality work independently.

Office Referrals

A completed discipline referral sheet or positive referral sheet must accompany students sent to the office. If the principal or designee is unavailable, the referral sheet will be kept in the office and the student will be detained. The principal or designee will handle the matter as soon as they become available. At no time should students be sent to the office to complete classroom tasks—there is no one to supervise their work progress and there are too many distractions in the office area. In cases of severe misconduct, students should be escorted to the office.

Acceptable Use Policy

The Board supports reasonable access to various information formats for students, employees and the community and believes it is incumbent upon users to utilize this privilege in an appropriate and responsible manner as required by policy and related procedures, which apply to all parties who use District technology.
SAFETY PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES

The Superintendent shall develop and implement appropriate procedures to provide guidance for access to electronic media. Guidelines shall address teacher supervision of student computer use, ethical use of electronic media (including, but not limited to, the Internet, e-mail, and other District technological resources), and issues of privacy versus administrative review of electronic files and communications. In addition, guidelines shall prohibit utilization of networks for prohibited or illegal activities, the intentional spreading of embedded messages, or the use of other programs with the potential of damaging or destroying programs or data.

Students shall be provided instruction about appropriate online behavior, including interacting with other individuals on social networking sites and in chat rooms and cyberbullying awareness and response.

Internet safety, which shall apply to all District-owned devices with Internet access or personal devices that are permitted to access the District’s network, measures shall be implemented that effectively address the following:

- Controlling access by minors to inappropriate matter on the Internet and World Wide Web;
- Safety and security of minors when they are using electronic mail, chat rooms, and other forms of direct electronic communications;
- Preventing unauthorized access, including “hacking” and other unlawful activities by minors online;
- Unauthorized disclosure, use and dissemination of personal information regarding minors; and
- Restricting minor’s access to materials harmful to them.

PERMISSION/AGREEMENT FORM

A written parental request shall be required prior to the student being granted independent access to electronic media involving District technological resources. The required permission/agreement form, which shall specify acceptable uses, rules of on-line behavior, access privileges, and penalties for policy/procedural violations, must be signed by the parent or legal guardian of minor students (those under 18 years of age) and also by the student. This document shall be kept on file as a legal, binding document. In order to modify or rescind the agreement, the student’s parent/guardian (or the student who is at least 18 years old) must provide the Superintendent with a written request.

EMPLOYEE USE

Employees are encouraged to use electronic mail and other District technology resources to promote student learning and communication with the home and education-related entities. If those resources are used, they shall be used for purposes directly related to work-related activities.

Technology-based materials, activities and communication tools shall be appropriate for and within the range of the knowledge, understanding, age and maturity of students with whom they are used.
District employees and activity sponsors may set up blogs and other social networking accounts using District resources and following District guidelines to promote communications with students, and parents concerning school-related activities and for the purpose of supplementing classroom instruction.

Networking, communication and other options offering instructional benefits may be used for the purpose of supplementing classroom instruction and to promote communications with students and parents concerning school-related activities.

In order for District employees and activity sponsors to utilize a social networking site for instructional, administrative or other work-related communication purposes, they shall comply with the following:

1. They shall request prior permission from the Superintendent/designee.
2. If permission is granted, staff members will set up the site following any District guidelines developed by the Superintendent’s designee.
3. Guidelines may specify whether access to the site must be given to school/District technology staff.
4. If written parental consent is not otherwise granted through AUP forms provided by the District, staff shall notify parents of the site and obtain written permission for students to become “friends” prior to the students being granted access. This permission shall be kept on file at the school as determined by the Principal.
5. Once the site has been created, the sponsoring staff member is responsible for the following:
   a. Monitoring and managing the site to promote safe and acceptable use; and
   b. Observing confidentiality restrictions concerning release of student information under state and federal law.

Staff members are discouraged from creating personal social networking sites to which they invite students to be friends. Employees taking such action do so at their own risk.

All employees shall be subject to disciplinary action if their conduct relating to use of technology or online resources violates this policy or other applicable policy, statutory or regulatory provisions governing employee conduct. The Professional Code of Ethics for Kentucky School Certified Personnel requires certified staff to protect the health, safety, and emotional well-being of students and confidentiality of student information. Conduct in violation of this Code, including, but not limited to, such conduct relating to the use of technology or online resources, must be reported to Education Professional Standards Board (EPSB) as required by law and may form the basis for disciplinary action up to and including termination.
DISREGARD OF RULES

Individuals who refuse to sign required acceptable use documents or who violate District rules governing the use of District technology shall be subject to loss or restriction of the privilege of using equipment, software, information access systems, or other computing and telecommunications technologies.

Employees shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination (employees) for violating this policy and acceptable use rules and regulations established by the school or District.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR DAMAGES

Individuals shall reimburse the Board for repair or replacement of District property lost, stolen, damaged, or vandalized while under their care. Staff members who deface a District web site or otherwise make unauthorized changes to a web site shall be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

RESPONDING TO CONCERNS

School officials shall apply the same criterion of educational suitability used to review other educational resources when questions arise concerning access to specific databases or other electronic media.

AUDIT OF USE

Users with network access shall not utilize District resources to establish electronic mail accounts through third-party providers or any other nonstandard electronic mail system.

The Superintendent/designee shall establish a process to determine whether the District’s education technology is being used for purposes prohibited by law or for accessing sexually explicit materials. The process shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Utilizing technology that meets requirements of Kentucky Administrative Regulations and that blocks or filters internet access for both minors and adults to certain visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography, or, with respect to computers with Internet access by minors, harmful to minors;

2. Maintaining and securing a usage log; and

3. Monitoring online activities of minors.
